

FRANK FAMILY VINEYARDS

2018 RHF CABERNET SAUVIGNON

TASTING NOTES

Named in honor of Richard Harvey Frank, this Cabernet sees small additions of Merlot, Petit Verdot, and Cabernet Franc. It is soft and supple, with currant and blackberries at its core. A mix of cinnamon and dark chocolate play well against its savory components of dried herb and dusty earth.

WINEMAKER NOTES

The prestigious Rutherford viticulture area is home to some of Napa Valley's most celebrated wines and has been home to Frank Family's coveted Cabernet Sauvignons for the past few decades. The RHF captures the character of Rutherford with its endless layers of soft, silky black fruit, punches of baking spice, and classic Rutherford dust that has come to define the great wines of this wine-growing region.

SOURCING

The RHF pays homage to our estate Rutherford hillside and floor vineyards from which the wine is sourced: Frank Family's own Benjamin Vineyard on the valley floor, and our "crown jewel" Rutherford hillside vineyard, Winston Hill.

AGING

20 months in 50% new French oak barrels and 50% once-filled French oak barrels.
